These requests need to be made via the eVoucher system.
Also, while I am amenable to providing whatever resources counsel requires for adequate representation, I trust counsel will not expend resources in advance of when they are necessary. For example, if Mr. Tarleton is going to move to withdraw his plea, a mitigation specialist for sentencing would be premature.

Re: United States v. Jalen Tarleton
Dkt: 24-CR-18 (CS)

Dear Judge Seibel:

I am counsel for Defendant Jalen Tarleton in the above matter, assigned to this matter pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act. I have spoken with prior counsel, read the docket sheet and the sentencing submissions, and reviewed the final PSR. I also have a phone call scheduled with the defendant and then will have an in-person meeting to discuss what next steps he wishes to take going forward. However, from what I understand happened on the last court date, it seems prudent to line up resources to assist the defendant.

I respectfully write to the court with specific requests:

1. I request approval for the appointment of an investigator for 20 hours at $110 an hour in the defense of this matter.
2. I request approval for the appointment of a mitigation specialist for 30 hours at $125 an hour in the defense of this matter.
3. I request approval for an associate attorney for 20 hours at $120 an hour in the defense of this matter.
4. I request approval for a forensic psychiatrist for 30 hours at the prevailing rate in the defense of this matter.
